

MAY HOLD UP
DRAINAGE WORK

Contract Not Yet Signed
By Reclamation Service and Water District.

Work on the El Paso valley drainage project may be indefinitely postponed if the water improvement district and the reclamation service are not able to arrange for signing the contract providing for the reclamation service to take charge of the work and release the directors of the improvement district from their obligations, as was agreed upon when the work was started. This was the decision reached at a joint meeting of the directors of the El Paso county water improvement district and the directors of the El Paso Water Users' association at a meeting Tuesday.

Pending the signing of the contract and the organization of the improvement district, the plans arranged for provided the temporary financing of the drainage work with funds guaranteed by the directors to the amount of about $100,000. It was understood that by the time this amount was expended the reclamation service would take over the work.

A meeting will be held soon and if possible some arrangement with the reclamation service will be agreed upon and an understanding reached, it was reported.

Wages Balance Returned.

A meeting was held at the El Paso office of the El Paso county water improvement district at which the committee requested the reclamation service to return the balance of the money advanced and for which the directors were responsible.

A meeting will be held soon and if possible some arrangement with the reclamation service will be agreed upon and an understanding reached, it was reported.

Those present at the meeting were J. A. Smith, J. E. Murphy, W. T. White, F. L. Parker, Jr., R. H. W. White, C. T. Turner, J. E. Smith, C. L. Kelly and Julian Alborn.

MAY MEAN THAT MEXICO IS WILLING TO GET OFF FENCE

Mexico may abandon its neutral attitude in the war and expose the cause of the allies, if a remark made by Mexican consul general Andres G. Ayala, of the district of Pinar del Rio, at the El Paso chamber of commerce, in honor of governor Amador Gomez and the officers of the Juarez chamber of commerce here any significance.

Mr. Ayala, speaking of the cause of the allies, said:

"Let me offer this toast to the independence of Mexico, the United States, and the other nations which are fighting for a world democracy."

Toasts were offered by Edgar W. Sawyer to the Carranza government and by George W. Clements to the "new republics."

E. Lombardo Saldaña, secretary of the Juarez chamber, said he felt that Mr. Ayala is friendly to Mexico and to the cause of the allies.

MEXICANS REDUCE BORDER
PATROL; SEND TROOPS AWAY

Mexican troops from Zaragoza, Guadalupe and other outposts near Juarez are ordered to move south to the vicinity of Casas Grandes.

A number of desert troops are also to be sent south, reducing the number of Mexican troops there until reinforcements can be sent from Casas Grandes.

Gen. Francisco Murguía is expected in Juarez Sunday from Chihuahua City on an inspection trip.

MEXICO ASKS U. S. HELP TO CATCH MISSING PAYMASTER

Mexico City, Mex., Aug. 1.—The department of state has asked the United States authorities to aid in the arrest and extradition of paymaster Eduardo Llanero, formerly attached to the forces of Gen. Guillermo Chucho, in command, who is charged with embezzlement of $120,000, and who is supposed to have fled to Texas.

RAILROAD MEN RETURN

H. H. McElreath and family returned Thursday from a trip to the Pacific coast. Mr. McElreath is the city manager of the El Paso & S. W. railroad.

W. R. Brown, general freight and passenger agent for the Santa Fe at El Paso, returned Monday from a trip to Chicago.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains."

A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home.—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 2444 W. 12th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

PIONEER PEACE OFFICER DIES

J. H. Comstock, Early Day
Sheriff and Marshal,
Succumbs at 72 Years.

J. H. Comstock, one of the familiar figures of the old days in El Paso, died in the county hospital Tuesday morning at the age of 72 years.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed. The body will be taken charge of by McLean, Simmons and Hartford.

Deceased was one of the pioneer El Paso peace officers, coming here before the railroads and serving in various capacities, including that of deputy United States marshal and deputy sheriff for many years.

He was chief deputy sheriff under the late J. H. Boone during Mr. Boone's term of office and on the death of Mr. Boone in California in 1906, was appointed sheriff by the county commissioners to fill out the unexpired term.

Later Mr. Comstock was appointed inspector of weights and measures for the city, filling that capacity for several years.

A few months ago he became too feeble to further fill the position he held with the city and went to the county hospital, where he gradually grew worse until death came Wednesday morning.

Mr. Comstock built one of the first suburban houses near El Paso, and, by a peculiar coincidence, it was on the site of the present county hospital, where he passed away. He lived for a number of years at that point, the Comstock ranch, surrounding the home, being one of the best in the vicinity of El Paso. Along about 1902, the place was burned and Mr. Comstock never rebuilt it, later selling the grounds to the county for hospital purposes.
